1. On approximately 2 August, Peter Bombov, Secretary of the District Committee of the Fatherland Front in Varna, told friends at a dinner that there will be war at the latest within two months. He stated that Russian troops will occupy Thrace, Greece, and Turkey. The USSR will take the Dardanelles and prevent the United States fleet from approaching the USSR. The USSR will depend on a class war in America and England to assist her. That class war is rapidly approaching.
2. Present at the dinner mentioned above and in complete accord with Bombov's statements were a man named Boshachev, Political Commander of the Bulgarian Army at Varna, and a man named Georgiev, who is a rector of the Varna University and also a member of the Central Committee of the Workers' Party in Varna.
3. Bombov was President of the People's Court in Varna after 9 September 1944, and is said to have signed over two hundred death warrants for persons regarded as opposed to the Communist State.
